

Annual Retreat & Conference

Continuing the Struggle: Solidarity with Honduras

May 14 - 16, 2010 at Camp Letts, near Annapolis, MD

with special Keynote Speaker:
Rodolfo Pastor de María y Campos, former Assistant Head of the Honduran Embassy in the US, and member of DC-based Hondureños por la Democracia.

“The task at hand is to resist, reform and rebuild.”

- Rodolfo Pastor de María y Campos

A view of the sunset from Camp Letts in Edgewater, MD

Join us for a weekend full of impassioned speakers on important Latin America solidarity issues & skill-building workshops like multicultural organizing and Arts & Activism!

Registration fee of $110 includes all meals (with vegetarian options), two nights' lodging at the beautiful Camp Letts along the Chesapeake Bay, all trainings, and lots of fun!

Stay in the area after the retreat wraps up on Sunday for an action-packed Lobby day on Monday, May 17th as Witness for Peace Mid-Atlantic fights for the TRADE Act and HR 2567 to cut funding to the SOA/WHINSEC!

See the full schedule and registration form at witnessforpeace.org/midatlantic or call us 706/405.1273. Low-income rates & scholarship assistance is available.